Composition Review What can I do? Brainstorm individually or in The Writing Process a group. • Write questions. • Prepare a web Where can I get ideas? • Visualise (see the scene in memories discussion vour mind). 1. Pre-writing • Plan, e.g. use a story research role playing structure chart. imagination brainstorming Choose your best ideas. Organise your ideas into paragraphs. 2. Writing a • Make sure your ideas relate Decide on your audience and first draft to each other and to the the purpose of your writing. topic. Start a new paragraph when you move on to a new idea. Are your ideas clear? • Is the series of events logical? • Have you used a variety of Read what you have written different words? 3. Revising or show it to a partner. Have you used different types of sentences? • Is there a clear introduction and conclusion? Check that you have written Check complete sentences. Spelling Join shorter sentences using 4. Editing Punctuation and, but, so, who which, Grammar because, although etc. • Subject / verb agreement Write a revised draft • Write your name and the date. • Write neatly. Layout 5. Publishing Indent or leave a line space Plan the layout when you start a new of your final piece. paragraph. Start a new line when someone speaks.